With deep appreciation . . .

We proudly dedicate The 1965 JEB to a teacher who has done much to instill in the students of Stuart High School, those qualities which will best suit them for more useful roles as mature individuals.

Not only has her patience, understanding, and preparation for class made her an outstanding asset to our academic life, but we have also had her support in all our extra-curricular activities.

With these things in mind we, the JEB staff, dedicate this annual

To

Mrs. Martha Dickerson

Foreword

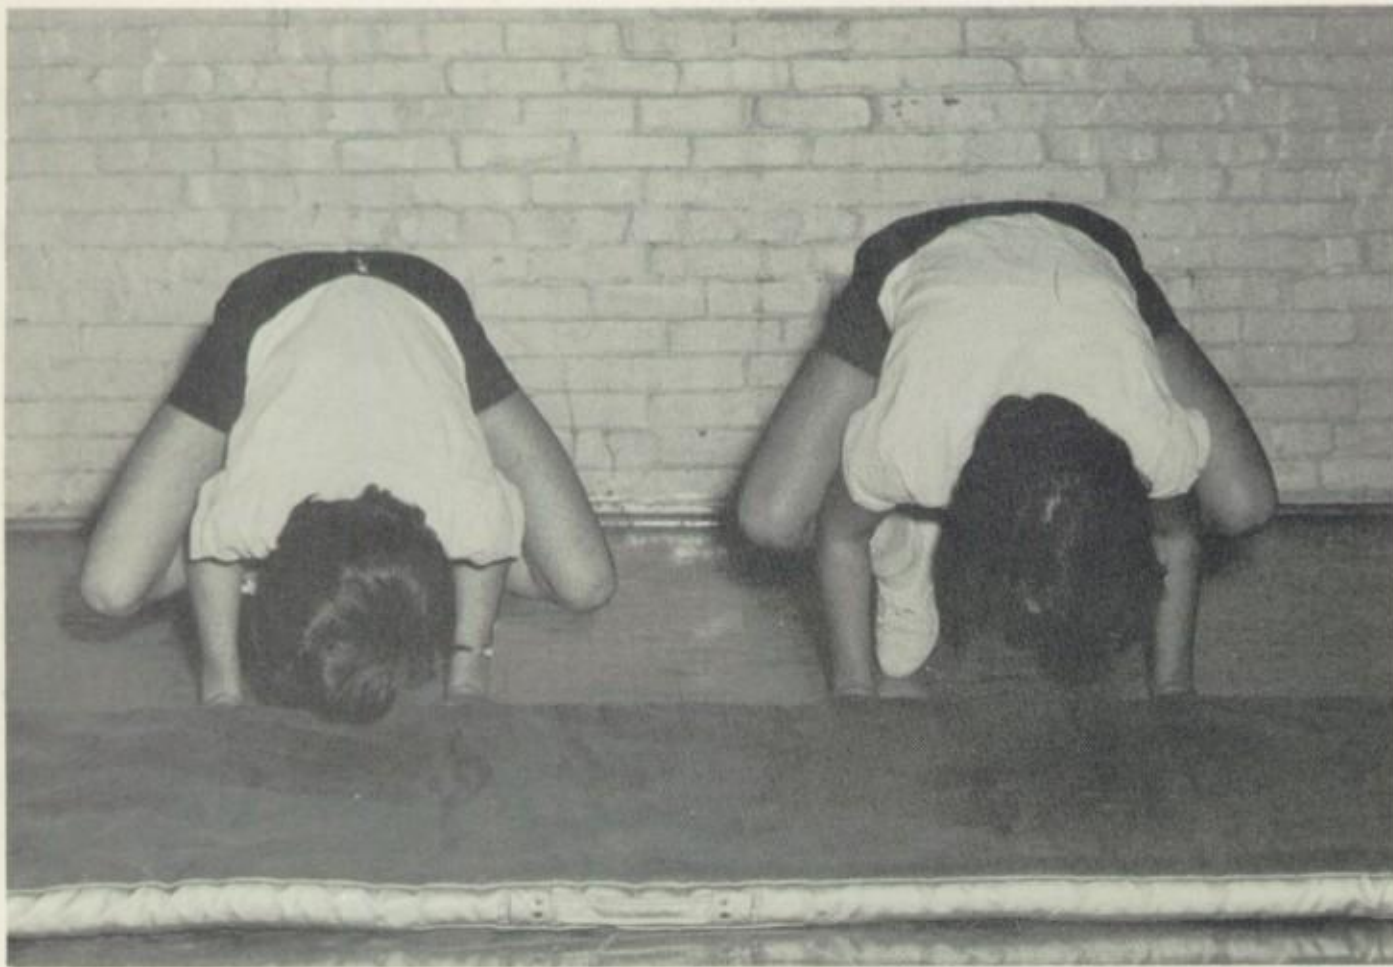

Time and tide wait for no man. But with THE 1965 JEB we, the staff, have tried to record in pictures and words, moments of joy and hours of toil in our year at SHS in order that this year might forever stand still for you AS TIME GOES BY.

While the FHA is on cloud nine because of its blue ribbon fair booth, Teacher Appreciation Week and National Lunch Week are celebrated, followed by the junior magazine sales and class pictures.

Junior, are you sure I haven't already bought a magazine from you?

"Don't be a litterbug," says the FHA.

November . . .

Anxious Juniors and Seniors contemplate future plans as they listen to representatives from colleges, nursing schools, armed forces, business schools, and other groups. Then thoughts turn to the coming basketball season.

. . . Christmas Social December

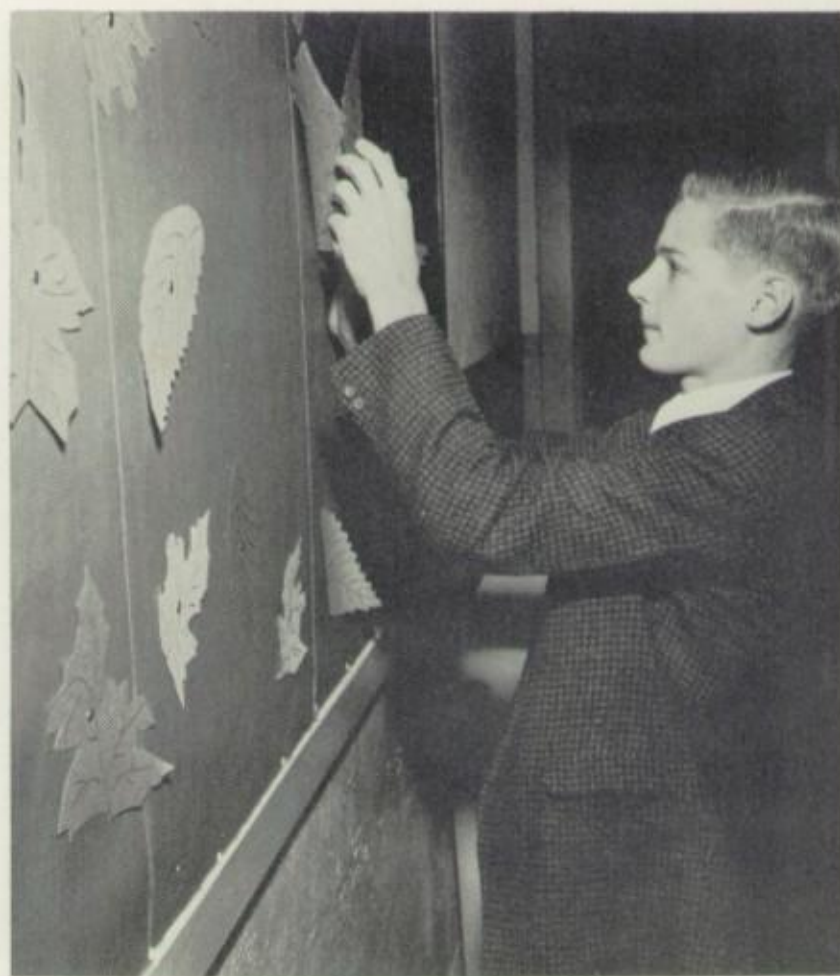

Opportunity knocks for students during December to catch up on studying, exchange gifts with others, remember those less fortunate than themselves with food baskets, and build up energy to be ready for the new year.

Jeffrey and Barbara are still admiring class rings.

"I wish I had studied rather than slept" is a familiar refrain as thoughts of examinations cause students to turn over a new leaf. "Oh! If it would only snow and give me an extra day to study for"

Jane shows Shirley how she plans to place furniture in her "dream home."

Graduation practice, class day, excitement, and a strange feeling of joy and nostalgia bring the year to a close. Each event greeted by the seniors as the LAST makes the undergraduates realize there will be other high school years but never another like this-AS TIME GOES BY.

Graduation . . . May

Reward of twelve years work equals hand shake and DIPLOMA.

Administration

The students of SHS are very proud to have the capable leadership of an outstanding administration. All have worked hard throughout the year to make this the best year ever. In doing this they have earned the respect of the entire student body.

Counseling is available to all students to aid them in making decisions and adjusting to high school life. Eighth graders, planning their high school courses, receive assistance in choosing subjects that will help them toward their future career; and seniors, applying to colleges for admission, receive valuable help.

Inside the classroom interesting instruction and individual help is also given. Teachers have tried diligently to help the students understand foreign peoples and their customs. Correct use of English grammar has been stressed, but creative writing has taken the spotlight for many, and English literature has come alive. Reasoning as well as the basic fundamentals makes math very valuable, as reasoning is important for all subjects. Keeping the students well informed about current events and preparing them to be good citizens of tomorrow is the aim of social studies. Science, business, vocational classes, and art have also played an important part in our learning process. All have worked well together to create an ideal relationship.

Tomorrow's Leaders

High School

In the beginning is the eighth grader who must make many adjustments. Coming from grade school is quite an experience, but he soon adjusts to high school life. The eighth grader this year has adapted himself well.

One step above the eighth grader is the freshman. Since he is no longer on the bottom, the student feels more a part of our school and contributes to its well being.

Sophomore, meaning "wise fool," is an appropriate title for the tenth grader. Being in the middle, the sophomore has mixed emotions as he is neither an underclassman nor an upperclassman. But perhaps these are his happiest days.

The junior begins to make decisions which mold and shape his future. Preparation for tomorrow is diligently begun. Though gaiety and light heartedness are still a part of him, the more serious side of things is beginning to take over.

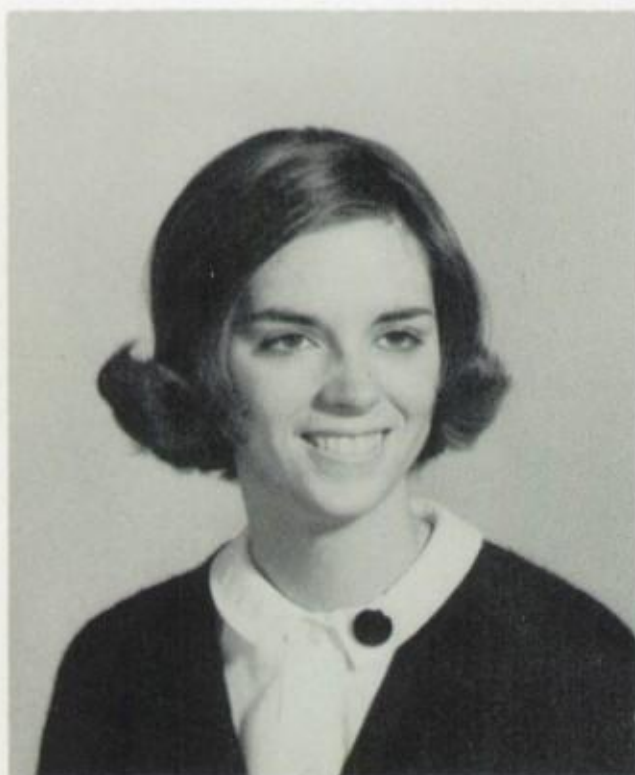

As he starts his twelfth year, the senior realizes that the last moments of high school have arrived. This brings a sadness to his eyes, but he looks for that brighter tomorrow when he will use what he has learned from the many yesterdays and today's.

Honor

This year, THE JEB staff proudly presents the first "Honor Graduates" to be chosen at Stuart High School from the class of '65. These seniors were selected by the faculty as being outstanding in the areas of leadership, citizenship, and scholarship.

The students were judged on the basis of their attitude toward the faculty, as well as, toward their classmates. Work habits plus a high academic average,

Organizations

SHS is proud of the many achievements of her students in their clubs during '64-'65. Through them she gained widespread recognition in many fields on local, state, and national levels.

The Hi-Y, a Christian service organization, gave morning devotions daily and presented a religious assembly at Christmas time. The Beta Club gave Beta emblems to eleven Seniors who had maintained three years consecutive membership and pins to the non-Beta student in each class who had the highest scholastic average.

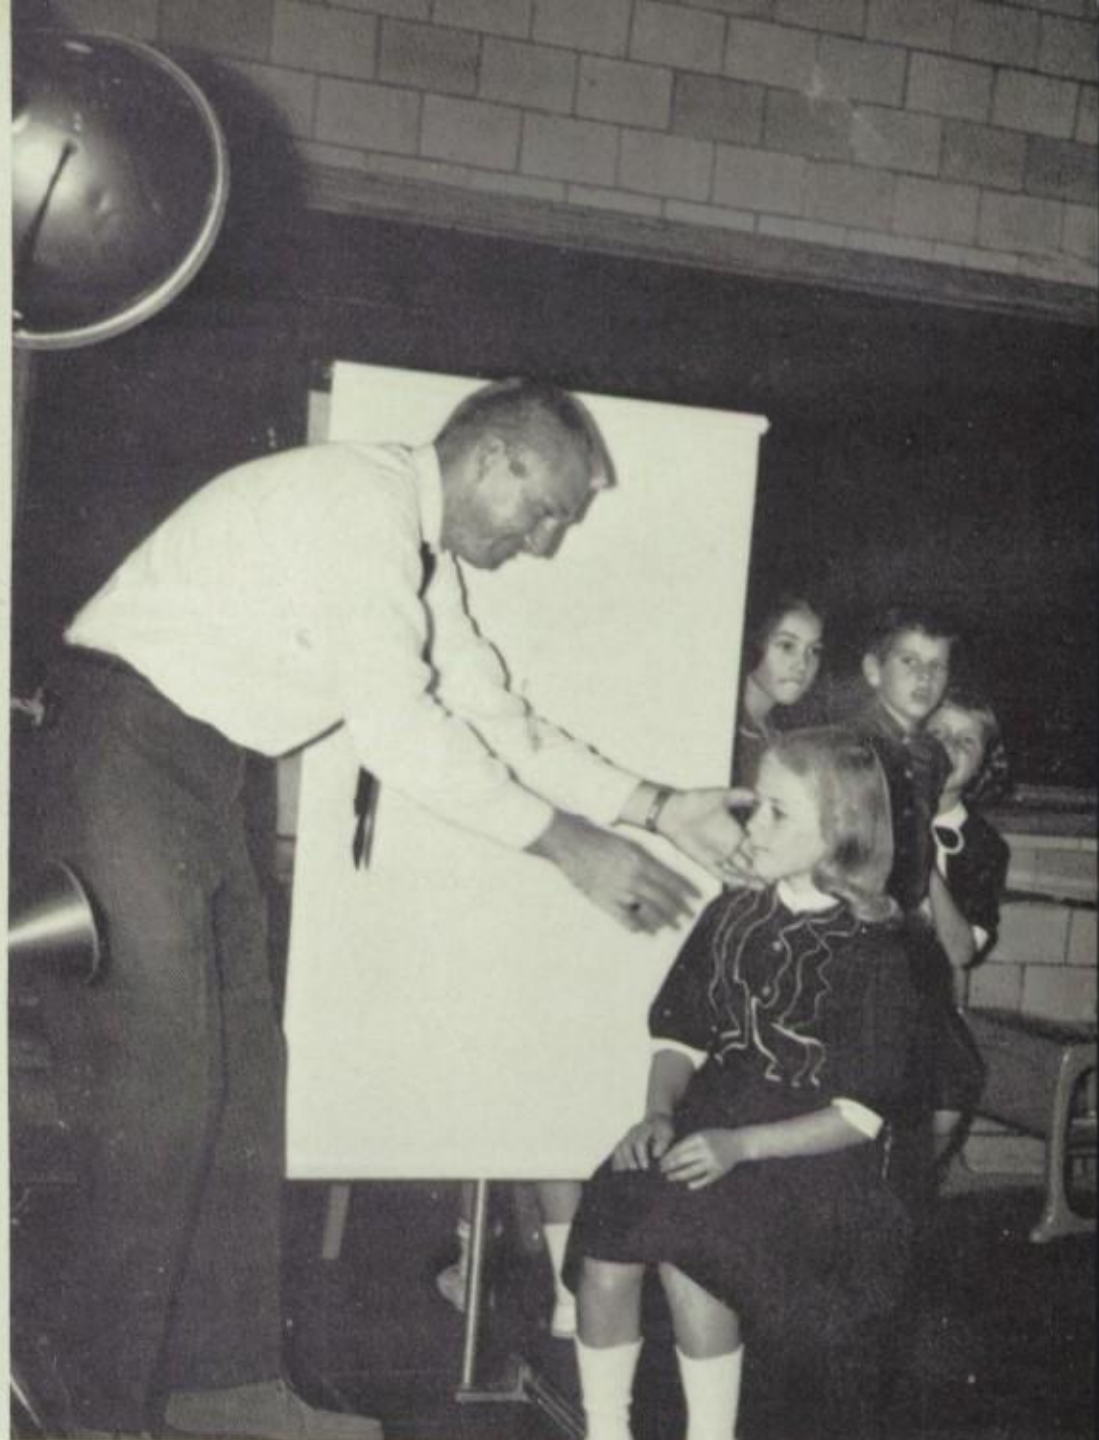

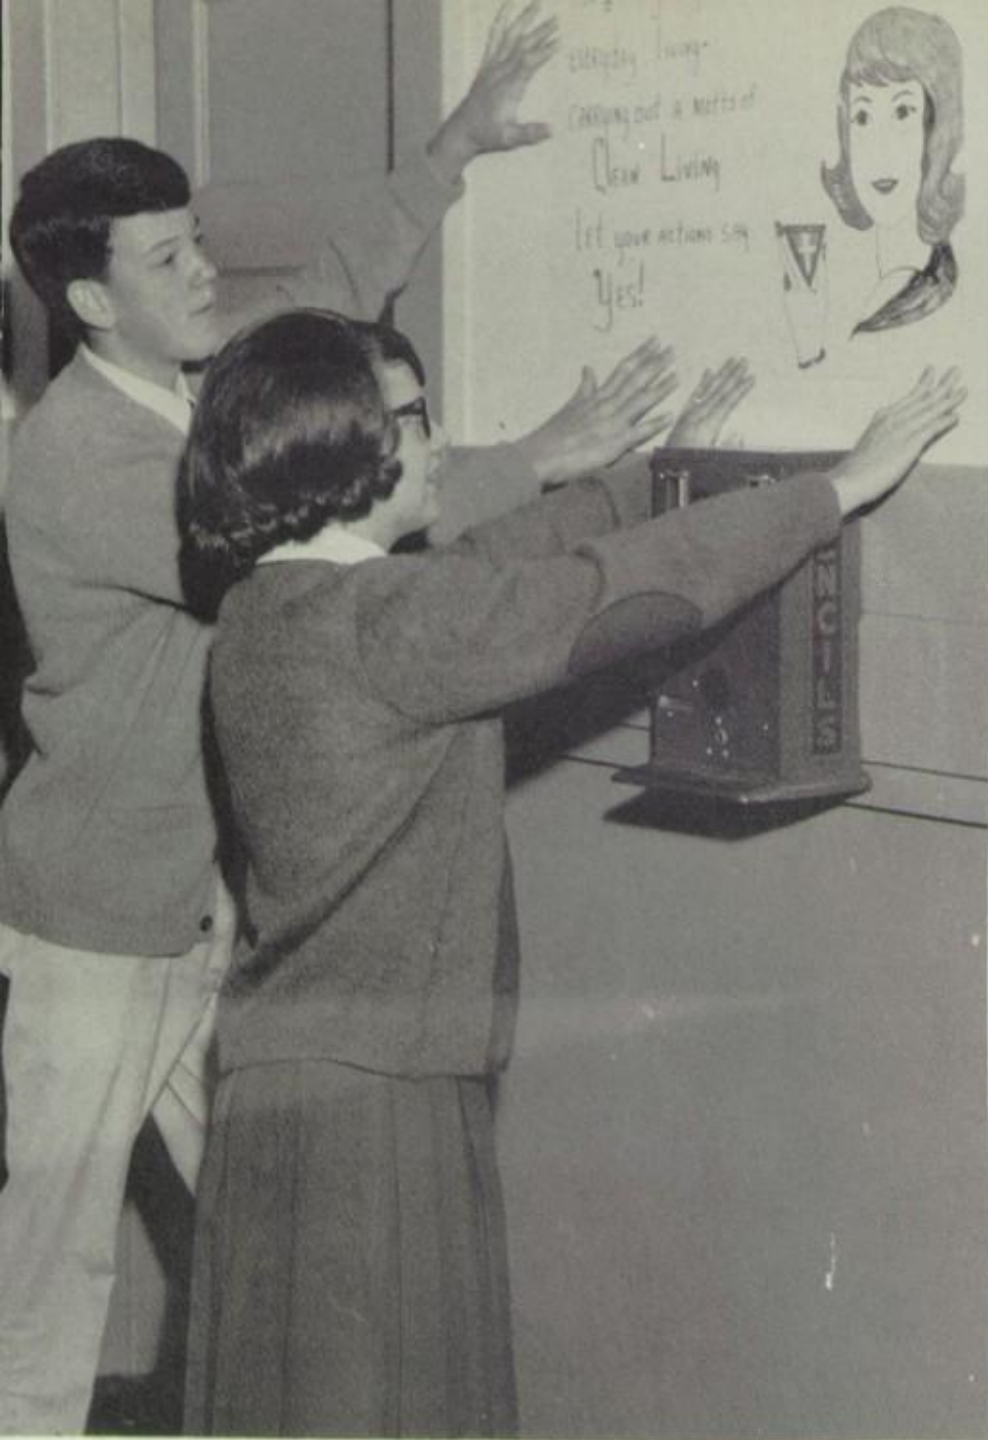

In the vocational field the FFA Forestry Judging Team placed first in the Fairystone Federation and second in the State. The FHA was successful in placing a candidate on the state ballot and electing her Vice-President, placed first with their fair booth, and was an outstanding chapter. The 4-H automotive safety winner attended National 4-H Congress and won there.

The Monogram Club awarded letters and bars to outstanding athletes. The Library Club worked hard to improve library service, while the Latin Club joined the JCL.

Working continuously, THE JEB staff has tried to prepare an excellent yearbook filled with lasting memories.

Backing these clubs is the SCA which works for a closer knit student body and faculty.

The Coed Hi-Y is a Christian organization for high school students. Its purpose is to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian Character through its platform of Clean Speech, Clean Sportsmanship, Clean Scholarship, and Clean Living. Emphasis is placed on various points of the platform by Club-sponsored Campaigns.

Student Life

Deep down in the heart of every person there is a desire to be commended for a job well done. At SHS long and faithful work is recognized,irregardless of the field in which it is attained.

Annual staff members are sent to NCSPI where they receive instruction in journalism. Some rising seniors receive a trip to Boys' and Girls' State to learn governmental procedures as carried on by our state.

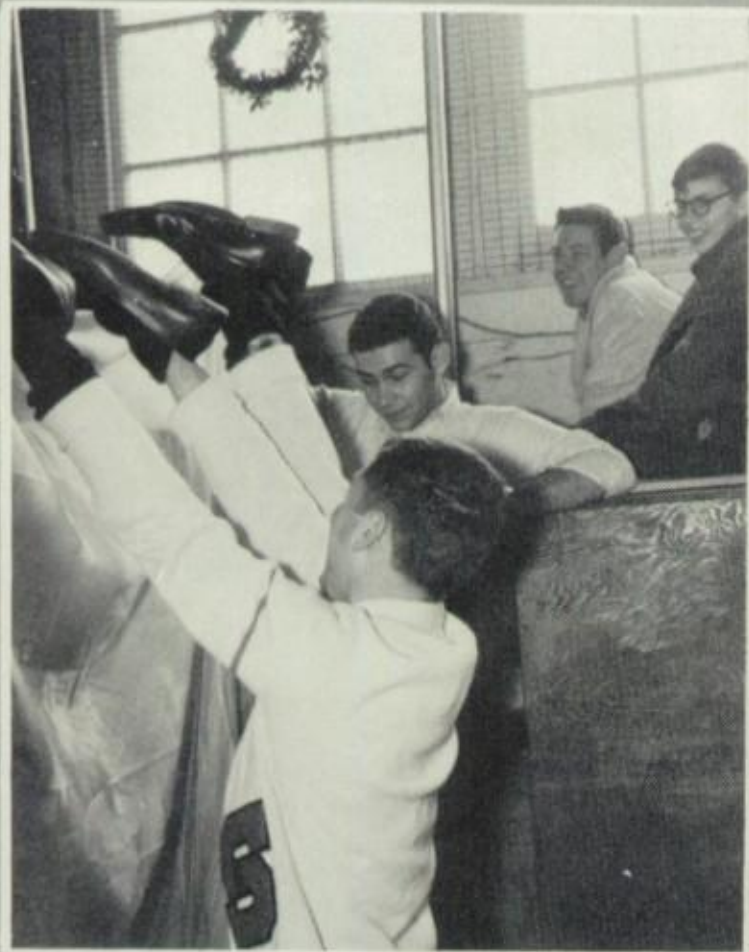

To the senior girl, chosen by her classmates and finally the faculty, for having an outstanding record in service, leadership, and dependability, the D.A.R. Good Citizenship award is a great honor. The Seniors eagerly await the publication of the "Honor Graduates" in the annual, who are three boys and three girls chosen by the teachers as being top students. The four junior marshals are selected because they rank the highest in their class scholastically.

There are three main social events at SHS. First is the Christmas social, with a visit from Santa, carols, entertainment and refreshments. Next comes one of the biggest events of the year, Homecoming, with basketball games and a Queen chosen by the student body to reign over the Homecoming Dance. Finally, the Junior-Senior Banquet brings sadness and gladness to the participants. The seniors realize that they have only a short time left at SHS, and the juniors are thrilled at the prospects of their soon becoming seniors.

All these help to make memories that will never be forgotten.

Standing on your heads?

This year's Christmas social covered all aspects of Christmas. The spirit of giving was expressed through the students by gift baskets which were prepared by the individual homerooms. This true spirit of Christmas was revealed by the presentation of the gift baskets and a brief message rendered by Rev. Robert L. Richardson, Jr. The social was then continued in the gymnasium with a visit from Santa Claus and various types of entertainment presented by members of the student body.

The theme of the Homecoming this year was "Willie's Pad". As usual, there was a large crowd including the present student body and alumni to see Joan Kay Nowlin crowned Homecoming Queen. The members of the Queen's court and their escorts were Barbara Byers, Larry Hutchins, Phyllis Belton, Jim Law, Joan Kay Nowlin, Donnie Blackard, Mary Elizabeth Boaz, Murray Thompson, Judy Conner, Mike Lyon, Anne Slaughter, and Danny DeHart.

Sports

Our athletic teams have shown excellent ability this year. Two new sports, golf and track, have been added to the athletic program. All of the teams have been well organized, sportsmanlike, and provided tough competition for all opponents.

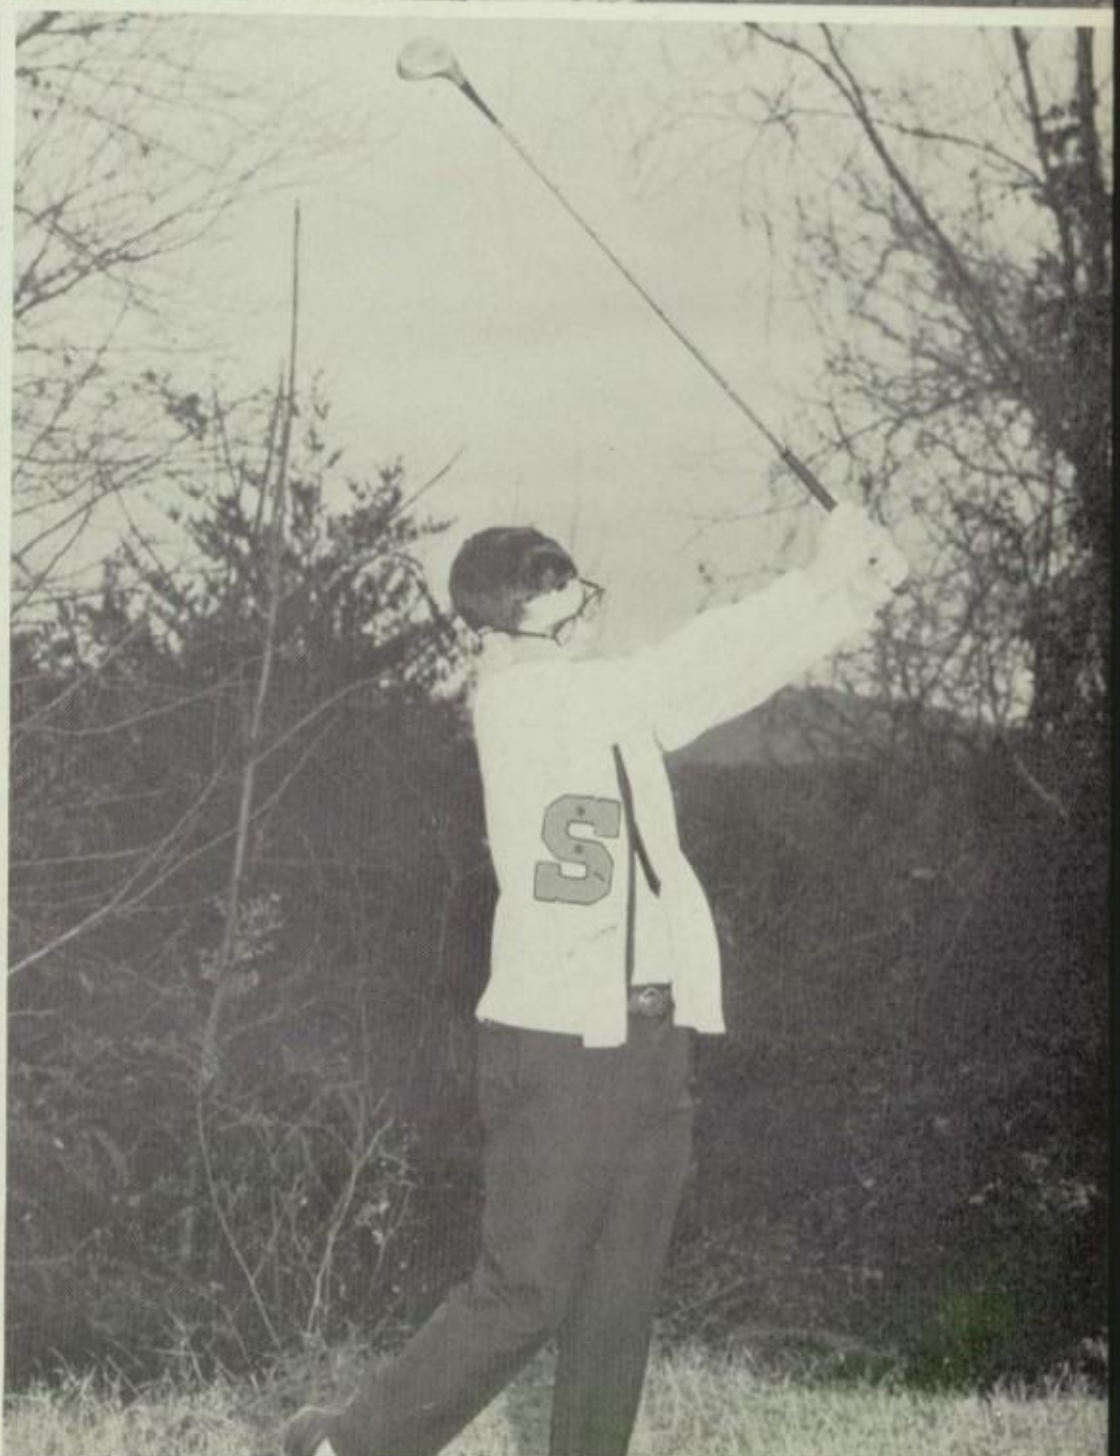

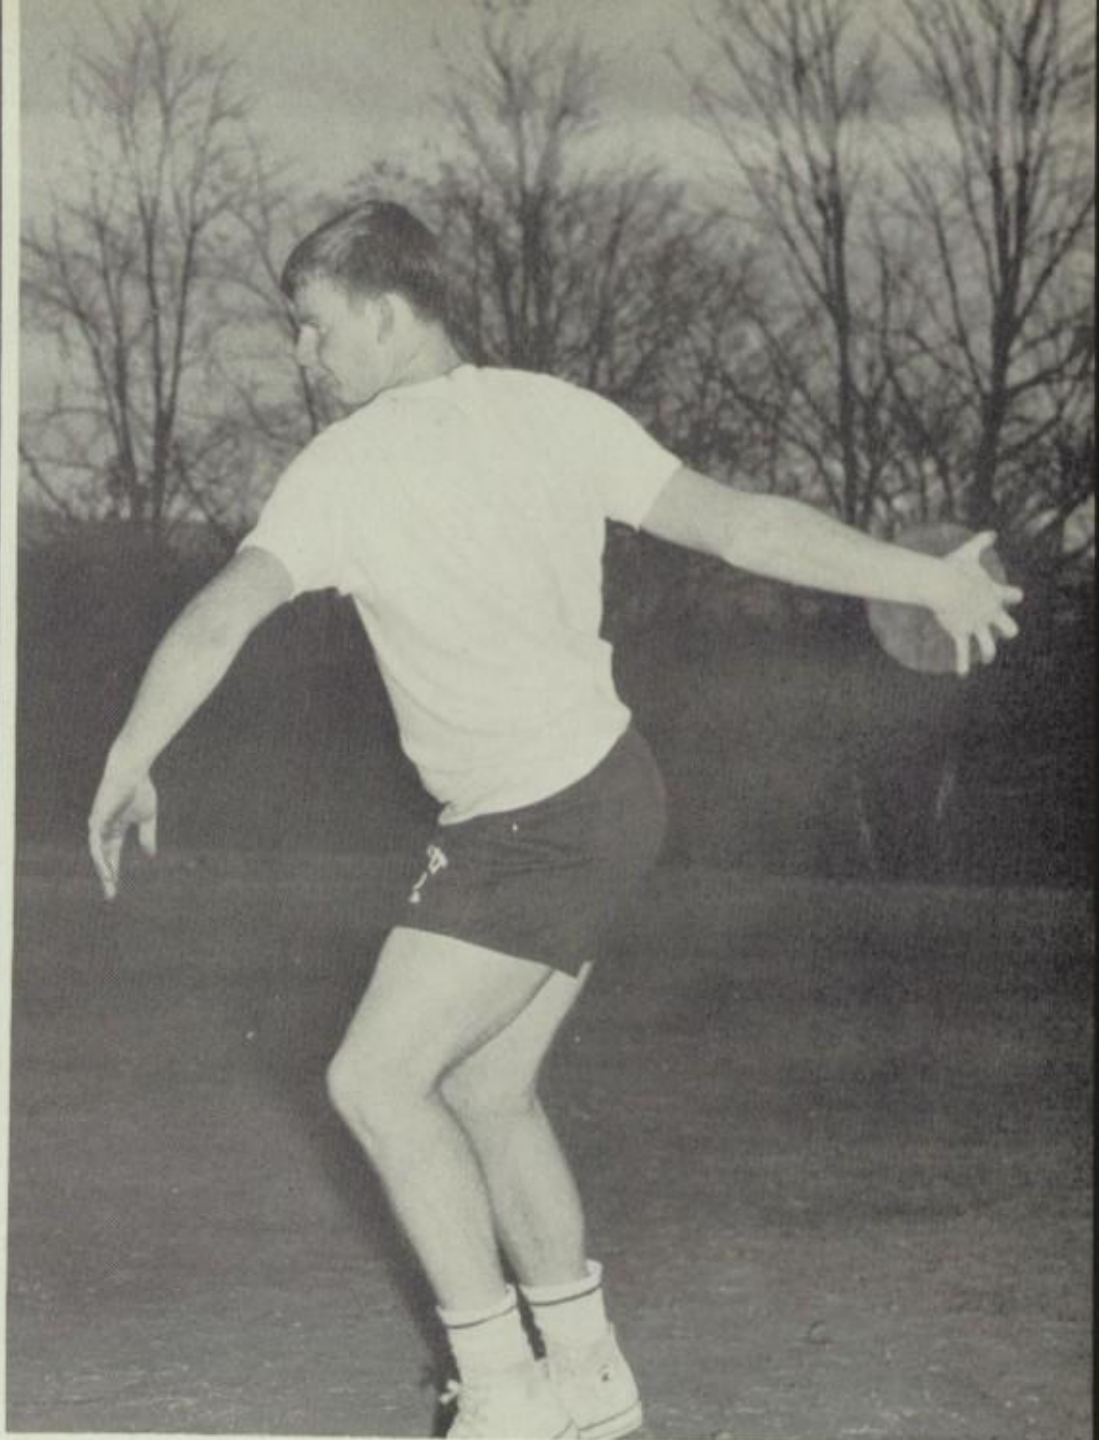

In basketball, both the varsity Wildcat girls and boys have done well. This is in contradiction to the forecast of the coaches at the beginning of the season.

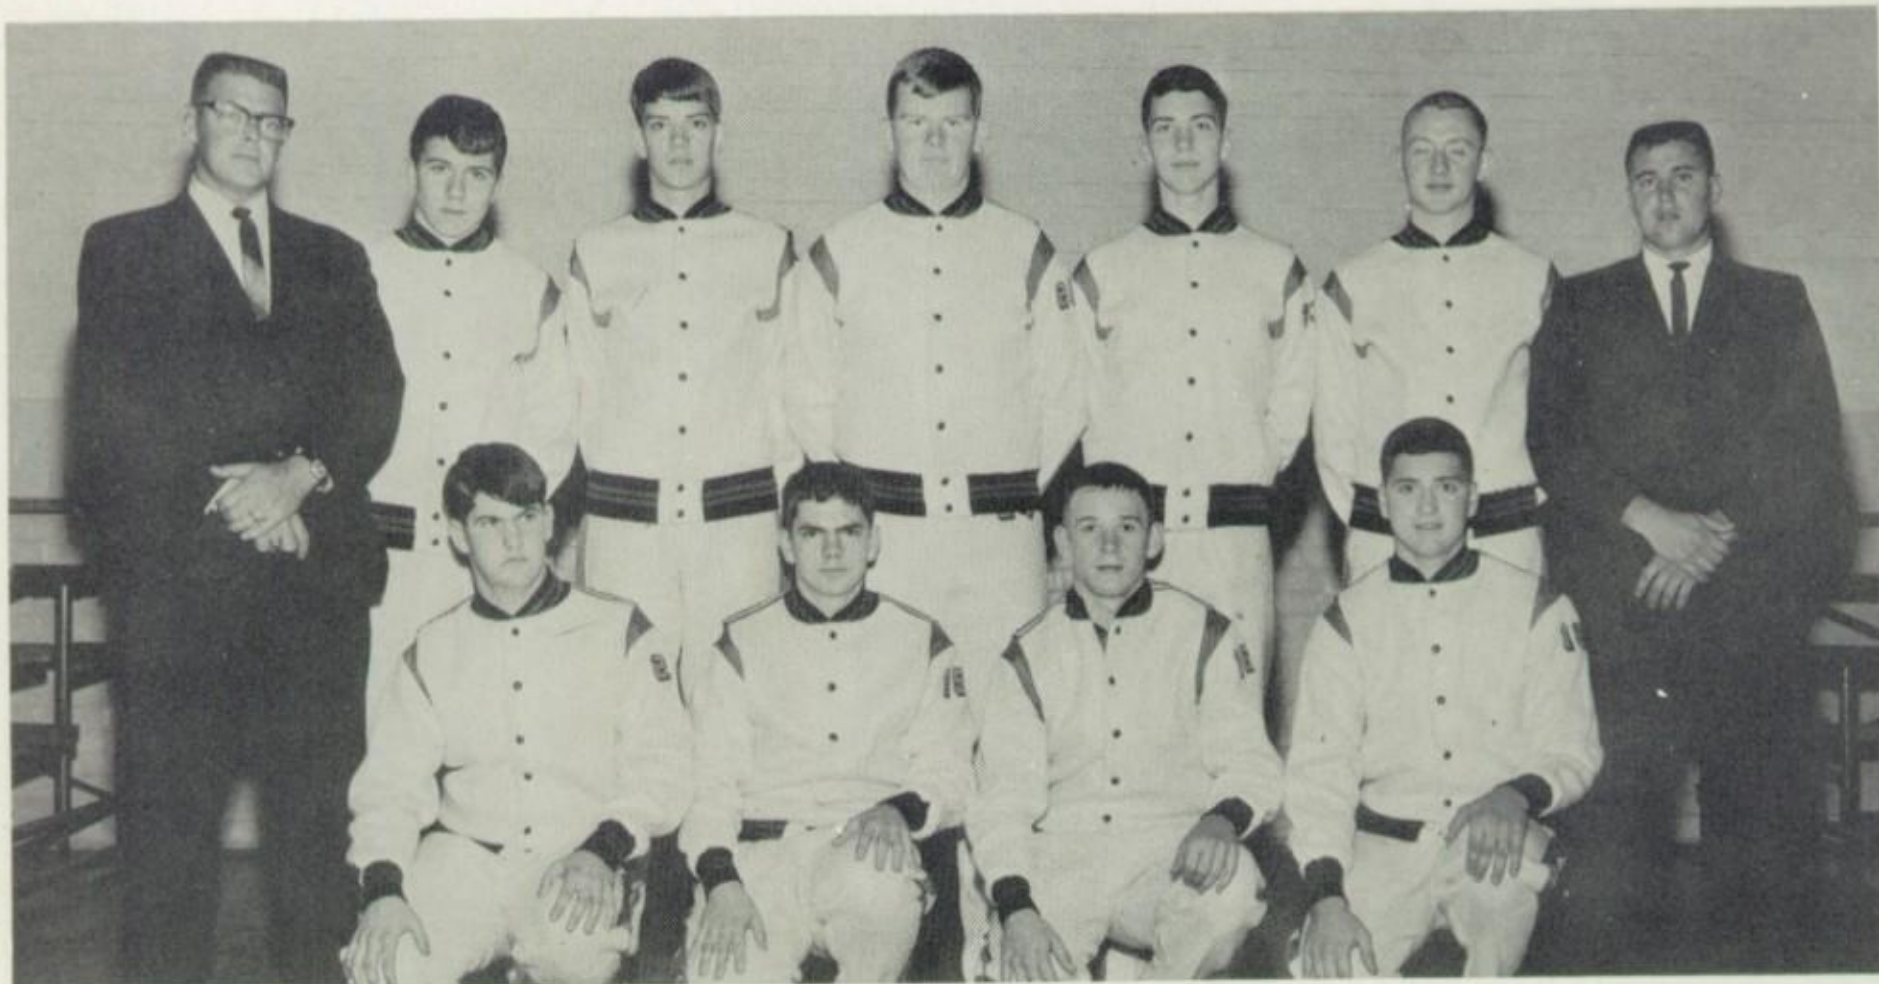

The boys' baby wildcats or Junior Varsity teams have shown much promise for the varsity next year. While a newcomer to the basketball field, the girls' Junior Varsity has done an excellent job and will provide many replacements for the senior members who will be leaving this year.

Baseball, track, and golf take over in the spring. Our baseball team, suffering only one defeat, took the District "R" Championship for the second straight year. The track team showed great enthusiasm while winning the county championship. The golf scoreboard was fantastic, and we again came up with the county championship.

At pep rallies and games, the cheerleaders have spread enthusiasm to the teams as well as the student body. They are the backbone of the cheering section and are responsible for a better showing of school spirit during games.

Elementary

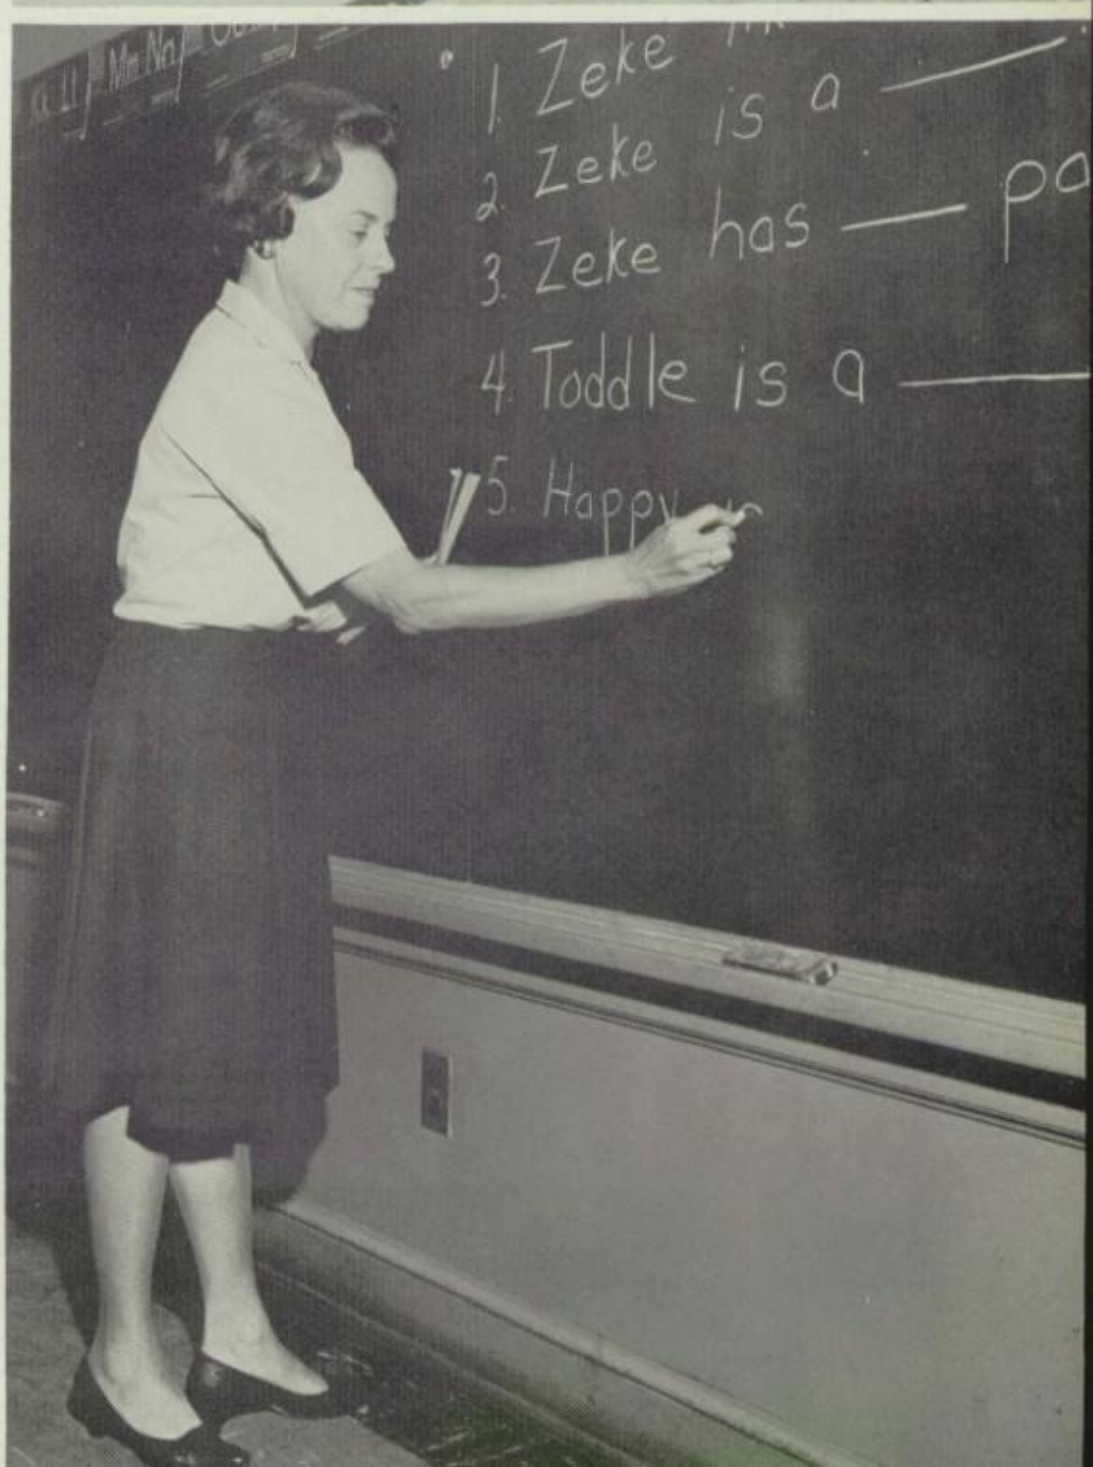

Each year as one senior class departs, a future senior class enters the first grade. This is the first step toward that big goal of every child--"A High School Diploma."

With the help of his teachers the first grader learns to adjust to school and to other children, to make his own decisions, to choose his friends, and to set his goals.

As he advances from grade to grade, his teacher is always there to assist him in each new phase of life with which he comes in contact. The teacher exerts her energies in preparing him for tomorrow's life. He learns the basic fundamentals of reading, writing, and arithmetic, learns to reason, and gains the ability to separate fact from fiction. All this prepares him to be able, when he enters high school, to stand on his own two feet.

We at Stuart High School wish to express our appreciation to the elementary teachers for their work in helping prepare us for high school. We are fortunate to have such a dedicated group in our midst.

Dear Senior Class of '65:

You are now completing your public education and it is in order to extend to you "Congratulations" for your perseverance and final achievement.

You are standing on the threshold of a new and exciting life. Commencement is truly the beginning--the beginning of greater accomplishments and greater responsibilities. Some of you will go to college pursuing a higher education to better fit you for life. Others of you will take up your responsibilities in the business world. Wherever you go or whatever vocation you engage in, we hope and pray that the future will be good to each and everyone of you. In this connection, you may rest assured that you may depend on us to render the best possible service to you and your community in every way that we know how. Your problems, either insurance or in civic affairs, are of prime interest to us.

Wishing you the best of luck for the future, we are,

Sincerely,

Paris H. Pugh, Owner

We, the Annual Staff of Stuart High School, would like to express our appreciation to you, the advertisers, for without your help it would have been impossible for us to publish THE 1965 JEB.

*Time and tide wait for no man; and for us,
the senior class of 1965, the sands have run out,
and our time at Stuart High has come to an end.
We must follow the tide which leads us to new experiences and greater heights. For those who remain
we hope even better things will be in store*

As Time Goes By.
